Mr Hesham Saleh is a Harley Street-based ENT consultant specialising in rhinology (nose and sinus surgery) and rhinoplasty (nose reshaping). A leading figure in his field, he is featured in the The Times newspaper's list of Britain's Top Surgeons and in Tatler Magazine as one of the Top 30 British cosmetic surgeons as "best for noses".

Mr Hesham Saleh MBBCh, FRCS, FRCS (ORL-HNS) is a Harley Street Consultant Rhinologist, Facial Plastic and ENT Surgeon at Charing Cross Hospital and Royal Brompton Hospital in London. He is also an Honorary Senior Lecturer of ENT Surgery at the Imperial College London.

With a specialist interest in conditions affecting the nose and sinuses, Mr Saleh provides private treatment for conditions such as allergies, sinusitis, problems with smell, nasal tumours and nose bleeds. He also offers nose reshaping surgery to improve the appearance of the nose, correct any damage following trauma, or improve nasal function and breathing.

Mr Saleh trained in ENT surgery at Ninewells Hospital in Dundee, The Royal National Throat, Nose and Ear Hospital and Charing Cross Hospital in London. He obtained his FRCS (ENT) in 1995 and FRCS (ORL-HNS) in 1999. In addition to being a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, he is also a Board-certified Facial Plastic Surgeon and obtained the Claus D. Walter Award for Highest International Score on IBCFPRS examination. Mr Saleh became a Fellow of the European Academy of Facial Plastic Surgery at Amsterdam Medical Centre, Holland in 2000. He was also a visiting fellow to centres of expertise in rhinology and facial plastic surgery in the USA.

A leading figure in both sinus surgery and rhinoplasty, both cosmetic and functional, Mr Saleh runs the Rhinology Clinics at Charing Cross Hospital and the combined nose clinic at the Royal Brompton Hospital. He provides private treatment for problems affecting the nose and sinuses at a state-of-the-art clinic at 120 Harley Street, London.
