

James Casha

Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon
Kent

Mr James Casha is a Kent-based spinal specialist offering the latest surgical treatments for neck pain, back pain, sciatica, scoliosis, spinal trauma and spinal sports injuries including lumbar discectomy and microdiscectomy, spinal decompression, facet joint surgery and minimally invasive spinal surgery.

Mr James Casha is Consultant Orthopaedic and Spinal Surgeon at East Kent Hospitals University NHS Foundation Trust and Honorary Senior Lecturer at King's College Medical School, London.

Mr Casha is regarded as an expert in his field, he is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons and has membership with the British Orthopaedic Association, the British Association of Spine Surgeons, the European Spine Society. Mr Casha provides private spinal surgery at leading independent hospitals in Kent: BMI The Chaucer Hospital, Canterbury, and The Spencer Private Hospitals in Margate and Ashford.

Mr Casha qualified as a doctor in Malta in 1986 and underwent his surgical training in Malta and Dundee, obtaining his FRCSOrth and MChOrth from the University of Dundee in 1994. Following a Fellowship in Spine and Trauma Surgery in Bochum, Germany and a Fellowship in Spine and Joint Reconstruction in Toronto, he worked as a consultant orthopaedic surgeon in Malta, both privately and in the country's public health service. At this time, he also held the post of part time Lecturer in Anatomy and Surgery at the University of Malta.

Appointed as Consultant Orthopaedic and Spinal Surgeon to East Kent in 1999, Mr Casha provides trauma and elective spinal surgery at three busy NHS hospitals in the region
