

Francis Chinegwundoh MBE

Consultant Urological Surgeon
London

Currently based at 19 Harley Street, Professor Francis Chinegwundoh MBE has been a Consultant Urologist at St Bartholomew's Hospital, London and the London NHS Trust and Newham University Hospital NHS Trust since 1996 (since 1 April 2012 merged as Barts Health NHS Trust). He is a former Clinical Director of Surgery and Anaesthesia at Newham University Hospital NHS Trust. He was awarded an MBE in the 2013 Queen's Birthday Honours list, for his services to the NHS.

Professor Chinegwundoh MBE in addition to being an honorary visiting professor at City University London, is also an honorary clinical senior lecturer at Queen Mary College, University of London. He is a Recognised Teacher of the University of London, a visiting Professor in Urology to University Hospital of Enugu, Nigeria and formerly acting Medical Director of Newham University Hospital NHS Trust. He is currently based at 19 Harley Street.

He deals with diseases of the urinary/reproductive tracts in men and with urinary disease in women and offers relatively new techniques e.g. TUNA (Transurethral Needle Ablation) for benign prostatic hyperplasia (BPH) and TVT (Tension-free Tape) for urinary incontinence.
