Dr George Fayad is a specialist in rhinology, balance disorders, vertigo, sleep disorders, snoring, laser endoscopic surgery and rhinoplasty. He is based at 84 Harley Street, London.

Mr George Fayad, governor of the International College of Surgeons, MD, MBA, FRCS, FICS, is a consultant ENT surgeon based at 84 Harley Street, London. This is a duty post involving all aspects of otolaryngology, leading a specialist team, training junior staff, promoting clinical skills and directing clinical programmes and research.

Mr Fayad trained in medicine in Brussels, Belgium. He later trained in ENT in Belgium and the USA with specialist experience in the USA and UK prior to his move to Basildon.

It is very important that patients have realistic expectations of what they wish to achieve, and the consultation is crucial in ensuring you fully convey these to Mr Fayad. He can then assess your situation and let you know whether your expectations are achievable and whether they will suit you. Please bear in mind that there are some factors which might influence the outcome of the procedure; i.e. the thickness of the skin differs from patient to patient and can affect the results.
