

Sundeep Bhalara

Consultant Physician &
Rheumatologist
London

Dr Sundeep Bhalara is a highly experienced Consultant Physician and Rheumatologist offering private treatment for a wide range of rheumatic conditions, including inflammatory arthritis, gout, osteoporosis, multisystem immunological disease, soft tissue disease and sports injuries.

Dr Sundeep Bhalara is a Consultant Physician and Rheumatologist in West Hertfordshire, with a special interest in the treatment of inflammatory arthritis. He treats a wide spectrum of rheumatological diseases including gout, multisystem immunological disease, osteoporosis, soft tissue disease and sport injuries.

Dr Sundeep Bhalara qualified from University College, London in 1991 in Medicine. Before obtaining higher specialist rheumatology training at Charing Cross and the Hammersmith Hospitals and the Kennedy Institute of Rheumatology, London, he undertook broad general medical training in London teaching hospitals including St Bartholemew's.

In 2002, Dr Bhalara received specialist recognition in rheumatology and general medicine and subsequently has been working as a consultant rheumatologist in West Hertfordshire (Watford, Hemel Hempstead and St Alban's Hospitals) and Charing Cross Hospital.

As part of his earlier training, Dr Bhalara completed his Master's degree in Immunology (which was awarded with a distinction) and continues to have an academic interest in the immunology of rheumatic disease. Currently, his clinical practice is broad and encompasses the whole spectrum of rheumatological disease, but he has a particular interest in osteoporosis, soft tissue disease and arthritis.

In May 2007, Dr Bhalara was elected as Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians. He has previously run the Early Arthritis Service at Charing Cross Hospital, a specialised tertiary referral clinic with state of the art investigational/therapeutic facilities and an associated research program. He practices privately at Spire Bushey and Harpenden Hospitals, and the Bishops Wood Hospital, Northwood. In addition to this, he is skilled in Joint and Soft Tissue injection techniques and also trains practitioners including GPs and physiotherapists locally.
