Mr Vaughan Tanner is a highly regarded Senior Consultant Ophthalmic Surgeon based in Berkshire. Utilising the most modern surgical techniques, Mr Tanner provides his patients with the highest level of personal care performing procedures such as cataract surgery, macular degeneration, diabetic retinopathy and retinal vein occlusion.

As an undergraduate, Mr Tanner was awarded Medical Research Council funding at the esteemed St George's Hospital Medical School, London, where he studied medicine. He then proceeded to gain advanced specialist training at the Oxford Eye Hospital, through which he achieved a Fellowship of the Royal College of Ophthalmologists.

Prior to his appointment as a Consultant Ophthalmic Surgeon, Mr Tanner completed further advanced, sub-specialist Fellowships at both Moorfields Eye Hospital, London and St Thomas' Hospital, London. During this time, he gained expertise in the surgical and medical management of all retinal disorders, including macular surgery.

Mr Tanner currently holds the role of Senior Consultant Ophthalmic Surgeon at the Royal Berkshire Hospital and King Edward VII Hospital. His regarded work also includes being at the head of a specialist vitreo-retinal surgical service for all of Berkshire, establishing a sub-specialist age related macular degeneration service, providing an expert micro incision cataract service, and leading a general ophthalmic team providing care for acute and routine eye conditions.

To date, Mr Tanner has performed or supervised over 10,000 major intraocular cataract and retinal procedures.

Mr Tanner's comprehensive experience in ophthalmology is vast and has led to national recognition. He has previously held roles in the ophthalmology department as both Lead Clinician and Clinical Governance at the Royal Berkshire Hospital, and his years of high quality work has led to him being awarded three NHS clinical excellence awards.
