Mr John Marshall is a Consultant Ear Nose and Throat Specialist in Glasgow treating all general ENT conditions including ear and hearing problems, nose and sinus conditions, and problems relating to the throat and voice. He is also experienced in cosmetic rhinoplasty and prominent ear correction surgery.

Dr John Marshall MBBChir, FRCS, is a consultant otolaryngologist dealing with a wide range of ear, nose, and throat complaints. Since qualifying from Cambridge Medical School, Mr Marshall has gained over 20 years post-graduate experience, and has been a consultant at the Southern General Hospital and Victoria Infirmary in Glasgow for over 10 years. He consults privately at both Ross Hall Hospital and the Nuffield Hospital in Glasgow.

Mr Marshall's postgraduate training took place in Cambridge, London, the East Midlands and Glasgow. He also completed a year's fellowship as visiting lecturer at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He has special interests in conditions of the ear and has established the provision of bone-anchored hearing aids at the Southern General Hospital in Glasgow where he has also helped to establish a dizziness clinic.

Mr Marshall has an active rhinology practice treating conditions of the nose and sinuses including cosmetic rhinoplasty (nose-reshaping) keyhole (endoscopic) sinus surgery and operations for nasal blockage.
