With over 28 years' experience as a Consultant Hand and Plastic Surgeon working in the largest hand trauma unit in the UK, Mr David Elliot is regarded as a leader in his field. He provides private treatment for many conditions affecting the hand, including nerve injuries and compressions, arthritis and Dupuytren's contracture.

Mr David Elliot is the senior hand surgeon at the St. Andrew's Centre for Plastic Surgery, Chelmsford, the major trauma unit for Essex and East London and the largest hand trauma unit in the UK. He also runs a hand clinic at the Spire Wellesley Hospital in Southend-on-Sea specialising in secondary trauma surgery, rheumatoid and osteoarthritis surgery of the hand, nerve compression and pain surgery and Dupuytren's contracture.

Mr Elliot was educated at The Edinburgh Academy, St. John's College, Oxford and St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London. He was an Oxford scholar and is a holder of the Kay-Kilner prize of the BAPS (British Association of Plastic Surgeons) and the Pulvertaft prize of the BSSH (British Society for Surgery of the Hand). Mr Elliot is the author of over 120 publications in the fields of plastic and hand surgery and is a frequently invited speaker worldwide on hand surgical topics.

Mr Elliot has held an A merit award in the NHS and is a past President of the British Society for Surgery of the Hand, a past Editor of the European Journal of Hand Surgery, a past examiner of the Diploma of Hand Surgery of the Federation of Societies for Surgery of the Hand and a past chairman of the Flexor Tendon Committee of the International Federation of Societies for Surgery of the Hand. He is a past member of the Council of the British Association of Plastic, Reconstructive and Aesthetic Surgeons (2000-2003). He speaks abroad regularly on hand surgical topics and has held visiting professorships of hand surgery in Australia, India, New Zealand, South Africa and the USA. He is also an Associate Professor of Hand Surgery in the Department of Orthopaedics at the University of Las Palmas, Gran Canaria.
