

Harry Powell

Consultant Otologist and Auditory Implant Surgeon

London

Mr Harry Powell is a Consultant Otologist and Auditory Implant Surgeon at Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust in London. A member of the London ENT Surgeons group, he provides private treatment for all ENT conditions affecting adults and children as well as having particular interest in diseases of the ear, hearing loss and auditory implants. Mr Powell consults at London Bridge Hospital, HCA at The Shard, Old Broad Street and St Thomas' Hospital.

Mr Harry Powell graduated from the United Medical and Dental Schools of Guy's and St Thomas', London in 2003. Following basic surgical training in Bristol, he undertook his specialist ENT training at a number of prestigious London teaching hospitals: The Royal National Throat, Nose and Ear Hospital, Great Ormond Street and The Royal Marsden.

Harry's extensive training provided him with a broad range of experience to treat all manner of ENT conditions in both adults and children. In addition, training in otology, cochlear implants, neuro-otology and skull base surgery at the Royal National Throat, Nose and Ear Hospital and a Fellowship in ear surgery and auditory implantation in Sydney, Australia have provided him with subspecialist expertise in diseases of the ear, hearing rehabilitation, auditory implants and endoscopic ear surgery.

On returning from Australia, Harry completed further fellowship training in otology and auditory implantation at Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust. He has been a Consultant Otologist and Auditory Implant Surgeon there since September 2016.

Harry has been the recipient of a number of awards, including Winner of the UCL Battle of the Surgeons in 2013, the Combined Universities temporal bone dissection prize 2015, the Royal Society of Medicine, Otology section short papers prize in 2016
