

Amarjit Anand

Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic
Spinal Surgeon,
London and Surrey

Mr Amarjit Anand is a Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Spinal Surgeon at Epsom and St Helier University Hospitals NHS Trust and the South West London Elective Orthopaedic Centre (SWLEOC).

Mr Amarjit Anand graduated from The Royal Free & University College London Medical School in 2005 and trained as a junior doctor on the Oxford and Cambridge rotation, during which time he was an Anatomy Demonstrator/lecturer at Oxford University.

Mr Anand undertook his Trauma and Orthopaedic Specialist Registrar (SpR) training on the London NW Thames rotation, spending two years specialising in spinal surgery at St Mary's Hospital Major Trauma Centre, Charing Cross Hospital and the Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital (RNOH) in Stanmore.

Having obtained his Certificate of Completion of Training (CCT) in 2015, he completed a Post-CCT Spinal Fellowship at the Royal Berkshire Hospital in Reading followed by a one year Complex Combined Neurosurgical & Orthopaedic Spinal Fellowship at Queen's Medical Centre (QMC) in Nottingham. He then went on to further extend his specialist knowledge and skills with travelling fellowships and visits to various Centres of Excellence in Spain, Germany and France.
