

Frank Plovier

Consultant Cosmetic, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon

London

Frank Plovier is a specialist in aesthetic, cosmetic, plastic and reconstructive surgery and non-surgical cosmetic surgery based in Harley Street, London, Manchester and Brussels.

Frank Plovier offers a full range of plastic and reconstructive surgery such as facelifts, nose reshaping, breast augmentation and liposuction. He provides private plastic at Be Clinic in Brussels and is available for consultation and aftercare at locations in London and Manchester.

Frank Plovier goes abroad frequently to enhance his professional training. He studied in Barcelona, USA and Brazil and in 2002 qualified as a plastic and reconstructive surgeon with "First-Class Honours with Distinction".

Since then he regularly teaches medical students (doctors and nurses) in all aspects of plastic surgery. Frank Plovier is a consultant in plastic & reconstructive surgery at the Hospital of the Free University of Brussels and at BE Clinic, a private clinic for plastic surgery and has carried out thousands of cosmetic surgical procedures.

Dr Plovier received his medical and specialist plastic and reconstructive training in Belgium, qualifying in 2002 with first class honours with distinction. He holds an extra licence for microsurgical reconstruction from the Université Catholique de Louvain and frequently travels abroad, keeping abreast of the latest developments in the field.

Many patients from the UK visit Frank Plovier in his cosmetic surgery clinic in Brussels. Belgium is world famous for his excellent system of health care and the independent status of Belgian hospitals means that revenues and profit are ploughed into new equipment and technology. Pre-surgery consultations and comprehensive aftercare will take place in either Harley Street, London, Fitzwilliam Medical Centre, Ireland or in the Anson Medical Centre, Manchester. The procedure itself will take place in Brussels.
