Mr Nicholas Gibbins is an ENT consultant at the London ENT surgeons. He specialises in all aspects of voice disorders, thyroid disorders, salivary gland disease and all ENT conditions.

Mr Nicholas Gibbins is an Otorhinolaryngologist consultant specialising in paediatric and general ENT conditions. He has a high interest in every type of voice disorder and has developed interest in salivary gland, thyroid and parathyroid surgery.

Mr Gibbins is currently part of the head and neck multidisciplinary team and is in charge of the thyroid team at University Hospital, Lewisham and Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Woolwich.

Mr Gibbins graduated from London Guy's Hospital in 1998. He built upon his knowledge by training in Australia and the UK. Mr Gibbins is an award winning consultant and in 2011 received a Medical Doctorate for his advanced research into tongue cancers. Also in 2011 Mr Gibbins research paper was awarded Gold at the ENT Masterclass.

Mr Gibbins works privately as part of a group of seven ENT surgeons, drawing from 80 plus years of combined NHS experience, providing expertise in all areas of Ear, Nose and Throat disorders.

Together the London ENT Surgeons have admitting privileges at over eight premier private hospitals, spread across London and the south, including Harley Street, allowing them to provide care for their patients as close to home as possible.
