Mrs Robyn Webber is an experienced Consultant Urological Surgeon offering private treatment for a range of urological conditions, including kidney stones, haematuria, urinary tract infection, prostate cancer and bladder cancer, at leading clinics in Glasgow, Edinburgh and Dunfermline.

Mrs Robyn Webber is Consultant Urological Surgeon at Queen Margaret Hospital in Dunfermline. As one of the only private urologists in Scotland to offer treatment both in Edinburgh and Glasgow, she operates her private practice from BMI Ross Hall Hospital in Glasgow and Spire Murrayfield Hospital in Edinburgh. For added convenience, she also offers outpatient appointments at Healthcare Now in Dunfermline.

Mrs Robyn Webber qualified from the University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand in 1987. She emigrated to the United Kingdom in 1989, and subsequently trained as a urologist. She obtained her MD degree from the University of Aberdeen, and was appointed as a consultant at Hairmyres Hospital, East Kilbride in the year 2000. In 2005, she moved to Queen Margaret Hospital, Dunfermline, where she is now based.

Mrs Webber is subspecialist trained in endourology and the management of stone disease, having undergone training at the Scottish Lithotripter Centre in Edinburgh as part of the East of Scotland Training Programme in Urology (ESTPU).
