Gerald Brookes: Consultant ENT Surgeon and co-Founder of The Harley Street ENT Clinic, London. Gerald specialises in ear and balance disorders – these include Meniere's disease, Acoustic Neuroma, Skull Base conditions, and neurologically related ENT disorders including Laryngeal Dystonia.

The Harley Street ENT Clinic provides one-stop ENT care in London. Their expert ENT surgeons and audiologists can treat a variety of illnesses affecting the ear, nose, throat, head or neck by providing both diagnosis and treatments on site at 109 Harley Street. Problems treated include hearing loss, tinnitus, sinusitis, bad breath (halitosis), snoring, coughing, hoarseness, mouth ulcers, heartburn (acid reflux) and thyroid disorders.

When you visit The Harley Street ENT Clinic it's important you feel you're in safe, skilled hands. They employ six of the UK's elite ear, nose and throat surgeons with impeccable credentials. They are able to assess and diagnose your ear, nose, throat, head & neck and balance symptoms, but any underlying causes.

In 1984 Dr Brookes was appointed as Consultant Neuro-Otologist, ENT & Skull Base Surgeon at The National Hospital for Neurology & Neurosurgery, Queen Square and The Royal National Throat, Nose & Ear Hospital, London.

Subsequently he was appointed Honorary Senior Lecturer in Otolaryngology at the Institute of Neurology and Institute of Laryngology and Otology.
