Mr Ali Kubba is a London-based Consultant Gynaecologist and recognised international authority in contraception and reproductive health. Committed to a holistic, patient-centred approach, he offers a comprehensive range of outpatient gynaecology services for women of all ages.

Mr Ali Kubba is a Consultant Gynaecologist at Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital Trust in London. Highly experienced and with an international reputation, he provides a range of private gynaecology services at two leading independent facilities in London, London Bridge Hospital and Westminster Bridge Consulting Rooms at St Thomas' Hospital. He also has a base in Harley Street and Chelsea.

Mr Ali Kubba is senior consultant in colposcopy, cervical screening, contraception and reproductive health at Guy's and St Thomas' Hospital NHS Trust. He leads the Trust's colposcopy service, which is the largest in London and one of the largest in the country. As a consultant in sexual and reproductive health, he also provides care for medical gynaecology, genital tract infections, contraception, smears and menopause, as well as training for doctors and nurses.

Mr Kubba is recognised as an international authority in contraception and reproductive health and has an extensive background in service development, research and training. He became a Fellow of the Royal College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in 1995 and is an Honorary Professor at Basra Medical College in Iraq and ex-Chair of the International Affairs Committee of the Faculty of Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare.

Other positions currently held by Mr Kubba are being the Vice President of the European Society of Contraception and reproductive health and executive committee member of the European Society of Gynaecology. He is also a founding member of the International Consortium for Male Contraception. He holds several editorial posts in international journals.

Mr Kubba has been awarded a B distinction Clinical Excellence Award.
