

Robert Stuart

Consultant General Surgeon
Glasgow

Mr Robert Stuart is a Consultant General Surgeon at BMI Rosshall Hospital in Glasgow. Formerly Senior Lecturer and Consultant Surgeon at Glasgow Royal Infirmary. He qualified from the University College Dublin Medical School in 1982 and trained in surgery in Dublin, Cork, Glasgow, England and Hong Kong. Mr Stuart is now in full-time private practice offering an extensive range of upper gastrointestinal, bariatric and general surgery procedures.

Mr Stuart returned to Glasgow as Senior Lecturer and Consultant Surgeon at Glasgow Royal Infirmary in 1995 where he built up the leading Upper GI Surgery Unit in the West of Scotland. In 2003 he was the Sir William Macewan Lecturer at the Association of Surgeons of GB & Ireland international meeting. In 2006 he chaired the Scottish Intercollegiate Guideline Network development group for oesophageal and gastric cancer guideline group (SIGN guideline number 87). Since January 2007 Mr Stuart has worked in independent Upper GI & Bariatric Surgical practice as Scotland's first full-time private practice general surgeon. He is a tutor on the EAES advanced laparoscopic surgery course in Ninewells Cuschieri Skill Centre, Dundee.

Mr Stuart has been involved in clinical and laboratory research since the 1980s and has published over 100 original articles and book chapters in the medical literature. He is regularly invited to give lectures and presentations worldwide and chaired the Scottish Intercollegiate Guideline Networks (SIGN) guidelines for the management of gastric and oesophageal cancer.
