Mr Bhupal Chitnavis is a highly experienced Consultant Neurosurgeon specialising full time in spinal surgery. With a private practice based at HCA UK at The Shard, 31 Old Broad Street, BMI Shirley Oaks Hospital in Croydon and LycaHealth in Canary Wharf and Kent, he offers expert treatment for the full range of spinal conditions, including sciatica, back pain, neck pain, arm pain, scoliosis and spinal tumours.

Mr Bhupal Chitnavis qualified from Guy's Hospital Medical School in 1989 and began his training in neurosurgery under the late Professor Edward Hitchcock in Birmingham. He then went on to train at the National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery with Professor Lindsay Symon, as well as at Great Ormond Street and King's College Hospital in London.

Whilst at King's, Mr Chitnavis was encouraged to train in vascular neurosurgery by Professor Anthony Strong and in spinal surgery. He received training in the highly advanced laser assisted high flow cerebral bypass techniques in Utrecht, Netherlands with Professor Cornelius Tulleken.

Mr Chitnavis complemented his neurosurgical expertise with training in orthopaedic spinal surgical techniques at the Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital in Stanmore and with Professor Jurgen Harms in Germany. Amongst the first neurosurgeons in the UK to specialise exclusively in spinal surgery, he is highly skilled minimally invasive spinal surgery, complex spinal surgery, CyberKnife® and spinal stabilisation (fusion), as well as non-operative management of back and neck pain.

Specialises in

- Spinal surgery for scoliosis, sciatica and back pain, neck pain and arm pain
- Minimally invasive spinal surgery
- CyberKnife®
- Decompression of spinal nerves
- Spinal fusion
- Spinal injections
